PLANS COMPLETED FOR GREAT PLANT

Atlanta Ice and Coal Corporation to Build $500,000 Factory in West End.

It was learned Wednesday that the Atlantic Ice and Coal corporation has completed plans and construction will soon begin on a new and modern ice plant to replace the plant of the company, located in

The West End plant will be changed from a steam plant to one electrically driven and the improvements, it was said, will cost approximately $500,000. Its output will be more than doubled. The total expenditure involved in the erection of the three plants will be near $700,000. it was stated.

Decision of the company to expand its production came at a time when its output is sufficient to enable it to supply the demand at home and ship thousands of tons of ice to western cities, but an

Will Be Last Word.

Modern in every respect, the West End plant is to be the last work in the manufacture and stor-work in the manufacture and storage of ice. It will be enlarged and equipped with the latest machinery to make ice and greatly increased storage capacity will be arranged. The plant will cover a tract of four acres which the company now owns.

Officials were influenced in their decision to locate a plant at Decatur by the increase of population in that section. Storage houses already located have been found inadequate to satisfy the desire of the company to furnish its customers the best of service and manufacture the product at their door.

Capacity of the Fort Valley plant will be doubled. It is here that hundreds of peach cars are loaded for shipment. With new staff curry or delay the company seed and reaped the bulk of the 10,500 peach cars moving north from Georgia this season, and the enlargement of the plant at Fort Valley is designed to take care of any crop that might exceed that of 1921, which is the biggest in the history of the state.

In addition to moving the Georgia peach crop the company has shipped thousands of tons of ice to the west, and is now preparing to help move the Michigan peach crop, a complete reversal of the old order of things, since in past years ice was brought from the Michigan lakes to assist in moving the Georgia crop.

Last year and year before last the Atlantic Ice and Coal corporation expended $1,600,000 on the erection of new ice manufacturing and storage plants, and the cost to build the proposed three new plants will bring the aggregate expenditure of the company for improvements during three years well over $2,000,000.

Taxi Chauffeurs Now Under Fire Of Grand Jurors

Poolrooms and Bootlegging Situation Will Also Be Probed.

When the Fulton county grand jury convenes Friday, a rigid investigation will be inaugurated into the relations between taxi chauffeurs with the chicken house abuses against which that body has launched a crusade. This was announced yesterday by C. D. Montgomery, foreman of the grand jury.

"We have consulted with Chief Mathleson, of the county police, and A. Lamar Poole, chief of detectives of Atlanta," said Mr. Montgomery. "Their information leads us to believe that the immorality and debauchery that has been prevalent in a number of these notorious chicken houses, is directly attributable to the close relation existing between this bootlegging element, the chicken house proprietors, the loose women, of Atlanta, and the drivers of the cars that make trips for hire.

"When we can have some supervision over the character of men who are permitted to drive these cars and when we can take vigorous steps against the pool room loafers, we will have done much to solve the perplexed situation in the outlying districts of the county.

"Our information is to the effect that these chauffeurs are responsible not only for bringing intoxicants to these chicken houses but for putting notorious women in touch with hitherto innocent girls who have been lured to these places. Any citizen who can give us any information along these lines will be gladly heard by the grand jury. They can be assured of that. We are determined to see that the county is cleaned up."

RUSSIA MUST SET AMERICANS FREE

BY RALPH H. TURNER,
United News Staff Correspondent.
Washington, July 27.—The administration has made its strongest bid, short of force, for the release of Americans imprisoned in Soviet Russia. Through the state department, it has sent a direct communication to the bolshevik authorities demanding the Americans be given their freedom.

The note was handed to the soviet minister at Riga by American Consul Albrecht and represents the closest approach thus far to direct negotiation with the soviet government.

It possesses added significance because it is part of a concerted movement to free the American prisoners. Herbert Hoover's cablegram to Maxim Gorky, fixing the release of the Americans as a condition to food and medicinal relief from this country, was dispatched with the co-operation of the state department, which immediately followed with its demand.

Hughes and Hoover Agree.
Hughes agrees with Hoover that America cannot aid Russia so long as her nationals are detained by the bolsheviks, but Hughes goes a step further in the state department's communication. The note handed to the bolshevik representative at Riga points out that release of the Americans is a matter allied just as closely with the cause of humanity as the suffering of the starving Russians.

Secretary Hughes is known to feel keenly indignant over the detention of the Americans and since entering office has made repeated attempts to secure their release. He has approached the subject from various avenues of communication, all his efforts having failed of their object thus far.

The note direct to the bolsheviks is the strongest card Hughes has yet played to obtain the desired result, two other courses being open.

First, the use of force, which might imply an ultimatum and the use of American warships in the Baltic.

Second, the initiation of direct negotiations with the bolsheviks, which holds the possibility of conversations between American and soviet representatives meeting in non-bolshevik territory.

Loath to Use Force.
This government has been loath to use force, and still is, because it might defeat its purpose, endangering the lives of the persons whose freedom is sought.

And there has not been the slightest intimation that the administration would approach the bolsheviks in any manner that suggested formal relations.

For the present, therefore, the fate of imprisoned Americans in Russia may be seen to hinge on Hughes' communication and Hoover's telegram to Gorky. The number of Americans detained in Russia has been estimated variously from eight to twenty.

SOVIET RUSSIA WILL NOT QUIBBLE.

London, July 27.—Russia will not quibble over the question of a few American prisoners when there is a humanitarian issue at stake.

Soviet representatives in London are confident that Moscow will acquiesce without reservation, hinting that perhaps the Japanese reply to Herbert Hoover, according to reliable information here.

PROBE OF PRISON IN ABE POWERS CASE

was a prisoner at the farm before he escaped?

The witness was uncertain, and after a number of questions said that he "thought" he did.

The chairman then read a section of the law regarding prisoners only in "the judgment" of the commission should be sent to the farm. He then asked the judge if this was his conception of the law.

At first the witness was evasive. Then he said that the commission had authorized the secretary to send such prisoners to the condition of Powers to the farm.

"In other words, you let the secretary pass judgment for you, didn't you?"

"In a way we did," was the reply.

Did Not Investigate.

Further questioning brought statements from the commissioner that he did not make an investigation of Powers' escape after Judge Davidson had made his report. In his opinion, he continued, the warden had erred in his judgment in making Powers a trusty.

B. J. Williams, the attorney, developed from the witness that prominent prisoners had been released and sent to the farm by the commission through partiality. The judge asserted, however, that under the law judges had authority to order any misdeed committed to the farm.

Representative Dykes asked the commissioner if it was customary for all the members to make investigations.

"No," replied Judge Patterson, "except one of us made one investigation. It has not been necessary for all of us to go to the different places."

Clark Appears.

Ex-warden Clark, of Fulton county, appeared before the committee and stated that Worley was a "stubborn prisoner," while he had in this county. In his opinion, he continued, the convicts were all "glad when Worley left."

Deputy Warden Cates said Worley was the "meanest inmate" he had ever handled, and that not one man could be found who could say "a good word for him."

Clark said that he had been told "put enough leather" on the convict, he stated, to make him do satisfactory work.

He admitted that Worley had brought charges against him, and in answer to a question stated that he "thought" the convict was insane while under his supervision.

Warden Smith asked to be allowed to make a statement. He denied that Deputy Sheriff Thompson, of Fulton, told him Powers was a "bunco artist." The food, which was found in the hospital ward by the committee, had been slipped in there by one of the boys," he said. He said given the prisoners is good. He said given the prisoners is good. He said given the prisoners is good.

Vermine, he admitted, had been found, but this was through negligence of a subordinate whom he had discharged. He did not tell the committee, the warden continued, that these conditions were unpardonable. "I did say though, that I was ashamed of the conditions."

Powers, said Smith, was under the supervision of Guard Holderfield at the time he made his escape. Instructions were given the deputies to guard the water boys, he said.

Following the warden's testimony, some minor evidence was received, and the committee adjourned until this evening at 8 o'clock, when it will go into executive session.

Fail to Agree.

During the two-hour senate committee session, attempts were made to reconcile the views held by Senator Campbell, chairman of the committee and leader in the move to submit a favorable report on conditions, and those held by Senator Fleming who has been leading the fight to condemn the prison farm. However, this was found impossible, each holding to his views. Senator Fleming claimed that other members of the committee not present would support his report.

The report submitted by the majority of the committee declares the prison to be very run in a very creditable way, with a few exceptions. It commends the warden for his work.

The minority report charges bad sanitation, mistreatment of prisoners and poor management. In conclusion it condemns the prison commission for its lack of care for the prisoners.

Members of the committee expressed the opinion that there would be a vote in the senate when the two reports came up.

The majority report is as follows:

"The stockade, buildings, grounds, and prisoners were all found to be kept in an excellent way, prisoners well clothed and given all necessary medical attention. We commend Warden Smith for the able manner in which he has conducted the institution with the following exceptions herein set forth:

"We found the future more care should be taken in regard to the general reputation of prisoners confined in state prisons and known as trusties."

"We condemn the action of Captain Smith in making a trusty out of Abe Powers within ten days after being received at the state farm and allowing him to escape."

"We found vermin in the white ward at the male stockade, which was a violation of the law. We requested the immediate removal of the man in charge of that building known as the warden, and we request was complied with promptly by Warden Smith."

"We found the women's building was found an improvement over former conditions. We also found there prisoners were suitably clothed and given due medical attention. The building was exceptionally clean and the following exceptions to wit: Vermin in the negro ward. This was caused probably on account of the inability of the ward man to remove from this ward the refuse and bedding in the open for the purpose of destroying these vermin; it had been raining and the refuse was not removed in need of repairs."

"We wish to commend Warden Etheridge on his administration of this branch of the state department."

Condemns Management.

Senator Fleming, in his minority report, first comments on alleged inexcusable unsanitary conditions charges the food was poor and contained vermin.

He then makes the following recommendations:

"The committee is forced to make the following recommendations that were found to exist at the prison and then his minority report to the eye of the casual observer."

"We find that the prison commission of Georgia has been both neglectful and derelict in its duty. For that reason 1200 of the prison code of Georgia reads as follows:

"It shall be the duty of the prison commission to require constant and thorough disinfection of the quarters of the convicts and the observance and maintenance of sanitary rules and appliances."

"We find that the prison commission of Georgia has failed to perform its duty in compliance with the law, and the observance and maintenance of the members of said prison commission for the said dereliction of duty."

"We also recommend that the prison commission of Georgia pay attention to their duties in the future, because the unsanitary conditions, numerous charges of cruel treatment, the inmates of said prison, and the slackness of the warden in charge, are a reflection on the state of Georgia, such as inhabit this great state of ours."

Escape Called Unwarranted.

The committee also made the investigation of one Abe Powers, famous throughout the state for his escape from a convict prison, a convicted burglar and wire tapper. Warden J. E. Smith said the said Powers was made a trusty within ten days after his arrival at the prison farm. He also stated he knew some days before his escape that Abe Powers was a convicted burglar and wire tapper.

Warden Holderfield was also introduced to his connection with the said Abe Powers. He further stated to your committee that at the time said Abe Powers escaped from the state prison farm he was in the field without a guard, and that he received the information of the escape of said Abe Powers was some forty-five minutes later and then his information of the escape was received from a trusty.

The chairman of the prison commission, Judge R. E. Davidson, also appeared before your committee and voluntarily stated that either he or the other members of the prison commission knew that the said Abe Powers was an inmate of the state prison until after his escape.

Your committee condemns the prison commission of Georgia for its neglect of this self-confessed dereliction of duty. Your committee also finds that Warden J. E. Smith was derelict in his duty and by his loose method of administration the said Powers was allowed to escape. We recommend that the prison commission of Georgia remove said Warden Smith from the state farm and we also condemn the prison commission of Georgia for having allowed the said J. E. Smith to act as warden of the prison farm after the escape of the said Abe Powers.

We then asked the committee if they had an equal, if not better, opportunity of ascertaining the facts that were gathered by your committee, just subsequent to the escape of said Abe Powers.

"We also recommend that a committee of five members be appointed by the senate as an investigating committee to make such further investigation that will remedy the deplorable conditions now found to exist in the state prison farm."

NEW PLEA MADE TO WHITE HOUSE FOR DEBS' RELEASE

Washington, July 27.—Another plea for the release of Eugene V. Debs and other political prisoners was presented to President Harding today by a delegation representing the socialist party and the political amnesty committee.

Those who saw the president included S. M. Castleton, Debs' attorney; William Krus, Miss Lillian Martin, of the socialist national executive committee, and Basil Manly, former leader of the labor board, and William H. Johnston, president of the International Association of Machinists, representing the amnesty committee.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, during a call at the white house today also suggested to Mr. Harding that he take action for the release of Debs and other prisoners confined in the federal penitentiaries.

Mr. Gompers presented resolutions adopted at the Montreal convention of the federation last year holding that no further public good could be served by keeping such prisoners in confinement.

Interested in the Debs case was further aroused during the day by a news conference held by the president and Attorney-General Daugherty. The subjects discussed were not indicated, but the president's general impression that the question of Debs' pardon might be nearing a decision.

Jury Blames Husband For Wife's Suicide After Home Troubles

Rome, Ga., July 27.—(Special.)—The coroner's jury which investigated the death of Mrs. Sallie Wardell, who died after swallowing carbolic acid Monday, laid the blame for the woman's death upon the husband, who was charged on Monday afternoon with her husband and handed him a small empty bottle, which he said contained carbolic acid, saying: "This will end our troubles." Wardell summoned a physician, but his wife died despite all that could be done.

It is charged that Wardell had no serious quarrels with his wife and their two children. When she recently had him arrested on a charge of desertion he pleaded guilty and received a year's sentence, which was suspended upon the plea of his wife's mental condition. He had promised to treat her better in the future.

Dry Law For All Declare Austin Fired By Kilby

Montgomery, Ala., July 27.—While the law enforcement department did not touch the rich, the prominent and politically influential, there was no complaint, declared Conrad W. Austin, deputy chief, who was last night discharged by Governor Kilby because he refused to dismiss three deputies who conducted raids on private homes in Mobile last week.

"My idea of the law is that it was written for all," Mr. Austin said today.

In a letter to the governor, Mr. Austin charges that "your whisky lunch at Mobile have called you to dampen the law, and no more, and you are dancing."

Governor Kilby today issued a statement in which he declared that there would be a "tightening up" in the enforcement of liquor laws wherever found necessary, and that law violators will find no grain of comfort in Austin's dismissal.

"I will plant the strongest man that can be found at the head of the department," he said.

Bill To Stop Women Smoking In Public Is Sharply Opposed

BY CLARK HOWELL, JR.,
Constitution Bureau, Raleigh Hotel.

Washington, July 27.—(Special.)—The prohibition of the federal law of women smoking in public is a long, long way off if a correct analysis of the situation can be garnered from what occurred today before the District of Columbia committee of the house which had before it for consideration a bill by Representative Johnson of Mississippi, prohibiting smoking by "female persons" in public.

Miss Alice Robertson, the one woman member of congress, was present at the hearing and indicated both by her questions and her remarks that she was opposed to a man-made law placing restrictions upon the rights of women to smoke when and where they please. The committee room was filled with women, many of whom were stenographers and clerks in the house and senate office buildings who took a keen interest in the discussion of the proposed law.

Opposition to Bill.

It was evident from a show of hands, called for by Chairman Focht of the committee, that the spectators and the committee were almost solidly opposed to the bill. The vote of the women was one in favor of and twenty-four opposed to the Johnson bill while the vote of the men was in favor and nineteen in opposition.

LITHONIA CITIZENS TO HOLD ROAD MEET

Lithonia, Ga., July 27.—(Special.)—Plans for a mass meeting of the citizens of Lithonia on the night of August 2, when proposed road improvements will be discussed, have been arranged.

Citizens are beginning to fear that this city may not share in the new $850,000 bond issue of DeKalb county. It is understood that J. Lowell, secretary of the board of trade, will preside at the meeting.

NO DECISION BY JURY IN ARRINGTON KILLING

Gainesville, Ga., July 27.—(Special.)—The jury charged with the trial of the case against Mrs. Mary Townsend, charged with the murder of Dr. John H. Arrington, a well-known physician of the city at her home near here two weeks ago, reported at noon today that they are unlikely to agree. They were still deliberating upon the case late Wednesday.

According to testimony by witnesses, Dr. Arrington met his death from wounds about the head, inflicted by a shoegun in the hands of Mrs. Townsend, after he had proceeded to her home near here to collect a bill for medical services.

It is claimed by the defense that Dr. Arrington seized the woman in his home, which was said to be a "house of ill fame" by witnesses introduced today by the prosecution.

The widow of the late physician, his twelve-year-old son, Dennis and eighteen-year-old daughter, Lora, were placed on the stand to refute evidence submitted by the defense that Dr. Arrington was in possession of a revolver at the time of his death.

JACKSONVILLE GETS 1922 BAPTIST MEET

Nashville, Tenn., July 27.—Jacksonville, Fla., has been awarded the 1922 session of the Southern Baptist convention, which will convene May 17 and continue for a week.

Dr. H. C. Moore, recording secretary of the convention.

A new substitute for glass or for lacquer has been invented in Germany. It can be cut with shears or with a knife and when heated to more than 100 degrees Centigrade, it forms a kneadable mass which resumes its previous hard state on cooling. It is called "cellon."

As Usual, The Southern Business College Shows Results, Several Pupils Get Positions

Enrollment for August Begins With a Rush. Graduates Going Into Splendid Positions.

Young people always flock to the school that gets results.

"I want to enroll in your school for a complete Business Course, because I could have secured three positions today if I had a knowledge of shorthand and bookkeeping," said Mr. Alex. Stanley to the managers of the Southern Shortland and Business University yesterday.

Mr. Stanley stated that he had been looking for a position, and that every firm he called upon advised him to take a Business Course.

During the last few days the following pupils have accepted positions with important firms. Prospective pupils will be shown the names of these firms: Miss Whitworth, Miss Dickenson, Miss Fambrough, Mrs. McCarroll, Mr. Winters, Miss Klein, Mr. Gordon, Miss Magouirk. Next Monday, August 1, Mr. Huey and Mr. Allen will be of the day.

Business education is the order of the day—it is an absolute necessity to young men and young women. Mr. Coleman sought commercial employment three months without success, but as soon as he finished a course in the Southern Business College, he was placed in a good position by the school and is now drawing a handsome salary.

The best advertisement is "a satisfied patron." The Southern satisfies. Mrs. Carroll Melton of Rosetown, has a son attending the school.

Enroll now for August. Call, phone or write for catalog. Address A. C. Briscoe, President, W. Arnold, Vice Pres., Atlanta, Ga.—adv.

HIGHWAY MEETING TO BE DISCUSSED

Interest of the Atlanta Automobile association in plans to celebrate the opening of the eastern division of the Dixie highway with a big highway convention on September 8 at Cincinnati, was manifested at a luncheon meeting of the directors held Wednesday at the Capital City club.

A motion was unanimously adopted to arrange a joint meeting of the Atlanta body and members of the Georgia Automobile association to hear an address by Rev. W. M. Boswell, eloquent speaker and representative of the Cincinnati convention, who will tour the cities on the route south of that city in August. He will be accompanied by a party of prominent highway enthusiasts.

Mr. Boswell is a well known Roman Catholic and if the Atlanta Automobile club is able to make necessary arrangements with the local Rotary club, he will be invited to speak before that organization while here. At the joint meeting of the two automobile associations the question of representation at the Cincinnati convention will be discussed.

Cotton Marketing Association Holds Series of Meetings

Opening the state-wide educational campaign to last from July 27 until the middle of August, the Georgia Cotton Growers' Co-operative association announced that meetings were held Wednesday at W. J. Walker's farm in Screven county, at Crawford, McDonough, Lawrenceville, Claxton, Fairburn and Conyers.

After August 6 a few days will be used in checking the results of the first campaign and a new schedule of meetings will be begun, to last from August 10 to August 15, in order to carry the work into all corners of the state not covered in the first campaign.

Among speakers who will fill dates for the association are: C. S. Barrett, A. A. Elmore, J. J. Brown, W. T. Hanson, J. T. Wise, T. H. McCoy, J. J. Flynn, A. J. Fleming, W. J. Walker, E. K. Overstreet, T. B. Thornton, L. R. Tillman, A. S. Anderson, J. E. Bodenhammer, W. W. Webb and others.

BACHELORS HOLD CELEBRATION ON TAX

proposal to blight the privileges of men who have never been to the yoke.

Robson's Position.

"There's been a saying for years," said Mr. Robson, "that nobody loves a fat man and nobody loves a man that says as true as gospel. Still the legislature doesn't want to make any distinction in favor of us 300 bachelors. If there was a tax on all bachelors under 310 avoidous, I'd favor it. As the law stands, I'll fight it out if it reduces me in flesh to the point where some woman will have me for my own tootle wootle sweetelums."

Two eminent financiers were seen consulting on a downtown corner. They were recognized as Jim Alexander, of the Atlanta National, and Henry Kennedy, of the Fulton National. Visions of a loosening of money, renewal of notes and all that sort of things were conjured up by their confabulation. Then this conversation was heard:

Alexander: "What do you think of it?"

Kennedy: "There's no telling to what extent of damfoolishness law makers will go nowadays."

Alexander: "What are you going to do—pay the tax?"

Kennedy: "How the dickens am I going to keep it? Haven't I got a crown grey headed trying to find somebody to take me? Do you think I'm an old and getting older bachelor from choice? Pay it? I've just got to."

See's Ray of Hope.

Dudley Woodard, scratched his dome of thought, which has the smoothness of the consistency of a billiard ball, when the question was put to him as to what course of action he would pursue.

"I see a ray of hope in this whole thing," he finally opined. "If the state is going to tax fellows for being bachelors, I should think it would be incumbent on the state to provide us with eligible and willful wives, so that we can remove our condition. If that's what the bill means, I say, bring on the tax!"

There was an entirely different problem in the mind of Henry Lyons. "It puts a fellow in a devil of a quandary," he said. "I'm perfectly willing to commit matrimony if I could have one of a half dozen I wanted. It is I'm liable to have five and get taxed to death. I should like to have some sort of provision for a fellow who is torn between rival attractions—a board of bachelors to view or something like that—let the state decide which one we'll have."

"Can a man claim a dependent?" was the only defense that Wimberly Peters could muster.

Can't Afford to Fight.

"The government said I wasn't fit to fight," said Willard Patterson. "Here's my draft board certificate. It says I've got everything except flat feet and insanity and it isn't any too sure about the last. If I can't fight, how can I expect me to get married?"

One Egan was seen gravely bouldering it down Whitehall Wednesday morning. He was saying nothing but looking mighty hard at price lists on signs in department store windows.

Finally I found Tom Connolly. "It has always been my firm political conviction," said Mr. Connolly, "that I should pay for my privilege. I consider that I am in the privileged class. I am willing to pay the tax ten times over if it will guarantee me matrimonial immunity."

And Mr. Connolly burst into that joyous old time ditty that roars: "When I was single, my pockets did jingle. And I wish I was single again."

Farm Demonstration Agents To Be Assailed in House

A fight on the farm demonstration agents of the state will be inaugurated when the house appropriation committee considers at an early date the Smith-Lever fund, through which these officials are maintained, and a determined effort will be made to transfer the money usually appropriated to meet these expenses to the Smith-Hughes federal fund to establish vocational training schools in different sections of Georgia, according to an announcement made Wednesday evening by Representative C. H. Kittrell, of Laurens.

Taking the position that vocational education is more important than the work of the demonstration agents, advocates of the change will base their fight on the advantage of being in a position of giving the children of the rural districts exposure to the training of their different vocations, as the legislature.

Should the state's financial condition be such that it would be impossible to meet the federal appropriation, which amounts to approximately $100,000, it is understood that an effort will be made to set aside a much smaller sum this year, and use the money for the training of children in the department of education. Since the general tax act has been passed by the house, consideration of the appropriations bill is expected to start immediately.

"There are many legislators who have been in the house usually appointed by the states to meet the Smith-Lever fund may be used to a better advantage in establishing these vocational schools throughout the state," said Mr. Kittrell.

"The work of the demonstration agents, under this new system, would be continued at less expense, because the state would be equipping its own citizens for the work. Instead of one demonstrator in each district, we would have a number of experts—not officials—but men who had made a careful study of their work in the vocational schools."

At a session of the educational committee, an amendment to the schools laws, providing that a majority of the members of each district casting ballots in order to become qualified for the consolidated school system, was favorably recommended.

Tried Students From Four Different Schools; The One From The Southern Business College Only Was Competent Busy Times at the Southern, Atlanta's Popular Business School.

New students are enrolling for August, which is a mighty good time to begin a Business Course.

The school rooms of the Southern Shorthand and Business University are generally kept pretty well filled with students, because it has long ago become well known that its pupils are so thoroughly trained that the business world is always on the lookout for its graduates.

In a letter received by the Southern from that important firm, G. L. Stripling & Company, of Fort Valley, Georgia, they write as follows:

"About twelve months ago we secured from your school a book-keeper, Miss Marian Story, who has been more than satisfactory in every respect. We had tried three students from different business schools, but not one of them was competent to fill the place. Should we ever need another bookkeeper, we shall certainly call on you, as we feel that you will not turn out any except those who are thoroughly competent."

Another pleased pupil, Mr. Thurman N. Waldron, writes as follows to a friend of his:

"Dear A. J.: Was down home Sunday and understand that you are expecting to take a business course."

"Now, A. J., as you know, I am a student of the Southern Business College, of Atlanta, and would like to tell you a few things. We have a large school, an efficient corps of teachers and all modern equipment for a first-class business course. With the right attitude of a student toward his teacher and his studies, there is no chance for failure."

"From personal experience, I can recommend every teacher to be efficient in every way, and the Southern to be the best business college in this state. This college also has a reputation among the business men, and when there are positions open, you can make sure that the graduates of the Southern get the best available."

"Come up and look around and I think the appearance will convince you and you will decide to get the best."

Enroll now. Write, call or phone for you to come here. We have a business men for a good school and you'll then enter the Southern. Address: A. C. Briscoe, Pres. or L. W. Arnold, Vice Pres., 11 Whitehall street, Atlanta, Ga. (adv.)

MOVIE PRIZE ENTRANT PITCHES FIRST BALL

Miss Reba Lawrence, prominent among many contestants in The Constitution's recent movie prize contest, will pitch the first ball Saturday at the Lion-Citizen baseball game. It was announced Wednesday by the sponsors of the game, Miss Mercedes Foster, a well-known Atlanta society girl, will act as catcher when the first ball is tossed.

The novel beginning will be one of many stunts arranged for the game. A brass band will furnish music. Fancy dances will be offered by Miss Sarah Moulton. Other novelties will be offered prior to the game.

The contest will be played at Ponce de Leon park at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Receipts will go to the rehabilitation unit and auditorium fund of the Atlanta Woman's club.

The books will close at noon on August 1 and the entrance time for all candidates comes to a close on August 15.

Atlanta Proposes Plan to Save Farm Of World War Hero

Outlines of a plan whereby aid may be given Sergeant Alvin York, who won fame by his capture of more than 100 Hun in the Argonne forest in 1918, were made public Wednesday by G. L. Cannon, of 382 Central avenue. Sergeant York is about to lose his farm because of his refusal to commercialize his fame through the ordinary channels of the movies, lectures or vaudeville.

Mr. Cannon's proposal includes the plan for every man, woman and child in the country to give 10 cents toward a fund which will be presented to Sergeant York as a token of the gratitude of the American people. "A million times means $100,000," says Mr. Cannon, "and it would not take very long if everybody would help. I want off with three dimes for myself, my wife and baby."

ATHENS COMPANY MAY ISSUE BONDS; MACON CASE HEARD

An order authorizing the Athens Railway and Gas company to issue $175,000 in bonds was handed down by the state railroad commission late Wednesday afternoon following an executive session. The hearing on the Macon Gas company reduction of rates case occupied the morning session of the commission. Judge W. H. Felton, president of the Macon corporation; R. G. McGraw, manager, and Hatcher and Smith, attorneys, appeared in behalf of the utility company, while R. G. Plunkett, city attorney, represented Macon. Both sides presented evidence and submitted the case to the commission without argument.

The corporation maintained that it was earning only a fair return on its investment and opposed any reduction in its gas rates, while the city attorney presented statistics to show that a decrease should be made.

FULL PARDON GRANTED MRS. EDNA P. GODBEE

Mrs. Edna P. Godbee, who resides at Perkins station, seven miles from Macon, yesterday received the news that she had been given a complete pardon by Governor Thomas W. Hardwick "very quietly, action coming as a surprise," according to a dispatch received by The Constitution Wednesday night.

Mrs. Godbee, after being divorced from her husband, killed him and the woman he had subsequently married. She was convicted of murdering Mrs. Florence Godbee, but the charge of murdering her former husband was not pressed.

The killing occurred in 1914. In 1920 Governor Hugh M. Dorey granted her a parole, and she had been at liberty from that time.

AD MEN TO PLAN CAMPAIGN TO END FAKE ADVERTISING

Protection of the public against fraudulent and misleading advertising through proper legislation will be the subject under discussion at the meeting of the Advertising Club of Atlanta in the Kimball house today at 12:30 o'clock. Governor Thomas W. Hardwick and President Herbert Clay of the state senate, are to address the club.

SOLICITOR TO SPEAK AT POLITICAL RALLY

Solicitor John A. Boykin has accepted an invitation to be the principal speaker at a political rally to be held at 8 o'clock Friday night at the Georgia Avenue school.

All candidates for council from the second and third wards will make short talks, it was said. Mr. Boykin's subject for discussion was not announced Wednesday.

Picnic Given

Syrian Children.

The ladies of the North Avenue Presbyterian church gave a picnic yesterday afternoon at Grant park in compliment to the children of the Syrian mission, which is located on Central place.

Mrs. D. S. Goodrich, as chairman of the special mission work which is being conducted by the church, was assisted by a group of ladies who arranged games and contests for the children's entertainment. There were seventy present, and the street cars to take the children to Grant park were furnished by the Georgia Railway and Power company. Delicious ice cream was donated by the Gate City company.

WOMAN AVOIDS AN OPERATION

Hope Nearly Gone, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her

Star, N. C.—"My monthly spells gave me so much trouble, sometimes for two weeks. I was treated by two doctors without relief and they both said I would have to have an operation. I had my trouble four years and was unfit to do anything and had given up all hope of ever getting any better. I read about your medicine in the 'Primitive Baptist' paper and decided to try it. I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills for about seven months and now I am able to do my work. I shall never forget your medicine and you may publish this if you want to as it is true."—Mrs. J. F. Hursey, Star, N. C.

Here is another woman who adds her testimony to the many whose letters we have already published, proving that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound often restores health to suffering women even after they have gone so far that an operation is deemed advisable. Therefore it will surely pay any woman who suffers from such ailments to try it.

Miss Sarah Moss Wins Recognition As Photographer

Miss Sarah Moss, of Athens, who was awarded first prize in the recent contest conducted for amateur photography by the Eastman company is quite a prominent figure in her home and is well-known in Atlanta. She has traveled extensively in Europe and on these trips she made many pictures of the old world of wonderful composition and beauty.

The subject of the prize-winning picture adds to the interest in that it is her aunt, Miss Julia Moss, taken as she was sitting knitting. This particular picture is already familiar to many of "Miss Julia's" former pupils, to whom she sent it as a token of her continuing interest in these men and women now widely scattered throughout the state and nation.

Miss Moss, the artist-photographer, has made photographs of Chancellor Barrow which caught the gentle and kind spirit of this beloved character.

Her collection of pictures are exquisite portrayals of places of beauty, people of unusual charm, children at play and in serious vein, and venerable colored people. The recognition of her work by the Eastman company is one which Miss Moss richly deserves, as her gift is quite out of the ordinary.

Georgians at Signal Mountain.

Among the Georgia people who have recently registered at the Signal Mountain hotel in Chattanooga are Mrs. S. B. Turman and daughter, Miss Helen Turman; Mrs. Frank Stanton, Frank Stanton, Jr., and Val Stanton have returned to the city after a motor trip to Lake side, near Macon, Ga., where they were guests of Mrs. Charles Clawson for the week-end.

On their return trip they stopped at Forsyth, Ga., where they were honor guests at a luncheon on Monday given by Mrs. Richard P. Brooks, at her beautiful home, "Brookline."

Situated in a grove of magnificent trees and with many old-fashioned gardens of lovely flowers, this home is one of the picture places of the south.

Imported cannaes, ragged robins, asters, zinnias, gladioli, snapdragons and roses contained in French baskets constituted the adornment of the luncheon tables, which were placed in the sun parlor and dining room on this occasion; and covers were placed for Mrs. S. B. Turman, Mrs. Frank Stanton, Mrs. Vera Head Hollen, of New York city; Mrs. Brooks, Helen Turman, Miss Letitia Turman, Miss Dixie Ponder, Miss Mitchell, Miss Cornelie Ensign, Frank Stanton, Jr., Val Stanton, William Ensign, Frank Williams, Gilbert Alexander, J. D. Tribble and others.

Smith-Sattles.
A marriage of interest to a wide circle of friends was that of Miss Gertrude Smith to Olin E. Sattles, which took place Saturday afternoon, July 23, at the West End Baptist church. Dr. Warren M. Seay performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Sattles is the accomplished and attractive daughter of Abner B. Smith, of Union City.

Mrs. Sattles is connected with the Fulton county tax collector's office and is one of the county's most popular employees.

Mr. and Mrs. Sattles have moved to their new summer home near Ben Hill.

Dance at Marietta.
There will be a "Jingo Jass" dance Saturday, July 30, at Roxana hall, Marietta, Ga. This dance was changed from August 1 to Marietta in order to accommodate the crowd as the hall is much larger.

Trucks will leave the Grady monument Saturday evening at 7 o'clock promptly.

Music will be furnished by the Jingo Jazz band.

McLeod-Foster.
Mr. and Mrs. John B. McLeod, of Morrow, Ga., announce the marriage of their daughter, Mattie, to Marvin Evan Foster, Sunday, July 24, Rev. J. E. England, of Jonesboro, officiating.

The August Furniture Sale Begins Today by Breaking Mirror Prices

This Mirror, Illustrated, $33

—There are many ways of beginning an August Sale of Furniture, just as there are more ways of killing a cat than by drowning him, yet we do not know of a more effective way than the one we have adopted in this amazing Sale of Mirrors!

—For some unknown and unfathomable reason, Mirror prices have been sky-high. They have dropped at Rich's for the Furniture Sale.

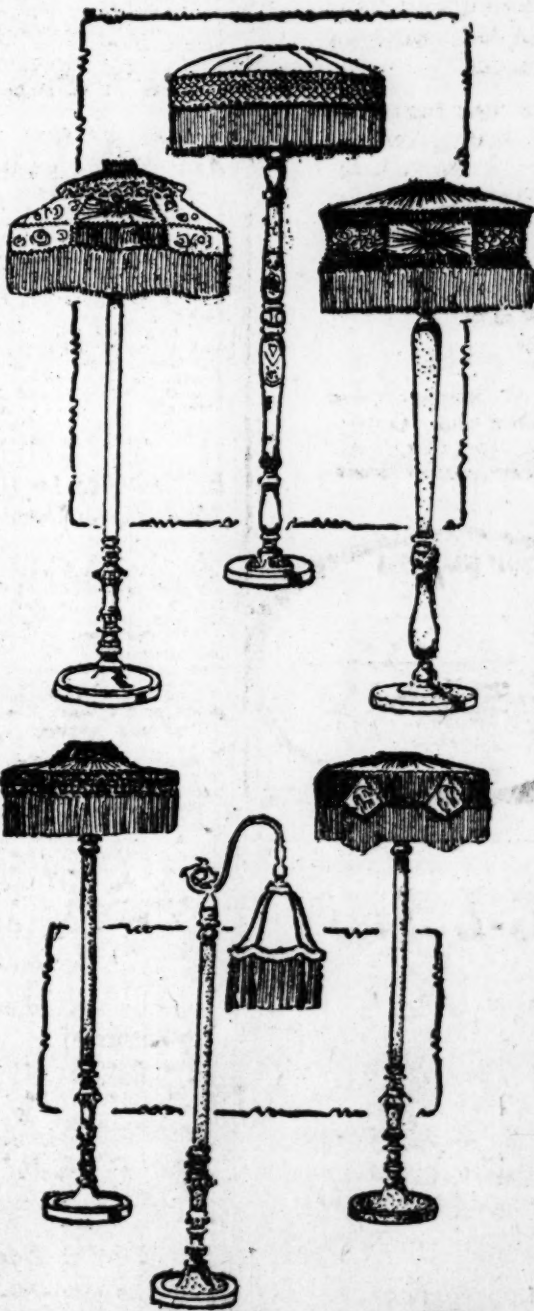

—There are hundreds of other mirrors, right out of our own stocks, at deep reductions. Of the outstanding values, the one illustrated above is the outstanding-est. The price is $33—the mirrors are worth $50. The size is 20x48 inches. Heavy bevel French mirror, beautiful frames of antique gold. Also at this price, center or oval mirrors, size 15½x20.

The Untaxed

Singer.

Bird on yonder,

singin'.

You dunno how to sing.

No tax on your music.

So sing your sing best!

Sing—sing away!

No tax you have to pay!

Send a music

don't lack-

make the day!

Wake a woodland chorus

From dim and dreamy rest;

No tax on your singing.

So you better sing your best!

NEW CREDITS BILL PLAYED BY NORRIS

Washington, July 21.—A bi-partisan movement in the senate today got behind the administration plan for agricultural credits as a substitute for the Norris bill, caused a split in the unofficial agricultural "bloc" and aroused to vigorous protest Senator Norris, republican, Nebraska, in charge of the measure bearing his name.

Charges of "political machine" tactics against his bill were made by Senator Norris whose verbal attack included the administration plan to have the war finance corporation placed in charge of agricultural credits, was directed at the substitute bill of Senator Kellogg, republican, Minnesota. This measure was drafted by Secretary Hoover and Director Meyer of the War Finance corporation and was introduced yesterday just prior to the reading of a message from President Harding suggesting such a measure.

Characterizing the Kellogg bill as an "illegitimate child," Secretary Hoover and Director Meyer as its "wet nurse," and Senator Kellogg as its "foster father," Senator Norris said the effort to defeat the Norris bill was the topic of many white house conferences. It was "no secret," he said, that administration was opposed to the Norris bill.

Suggestions of collusion between Vice President Coolidge and Senator Curtis, of Kansas, republican whip, in connection with Senator Kellogg's introduction of the substitute were made by Senator Norris.

GEORGIA BAPTIST ASSEMBLY BEGINS SESSIONS SUNDAY

The Georgia Baptist assembly begins its annual session at Blue Ridge next Sunday morning. The program this year is one of the best ever arranged. It includes the names of such Baptist leaders as Dr. B. D. Gray, secretary of the home mission board; Dr. J. W. Henderson, secretary of the laymen's movement; Dr. W. C. James, secretary of the Education Board; Dr. Rufus Weaver, president of Mercer university; Dr. W. H. Davis, of Louisville, Ky.; Dr. W. A. Tallentire, of Savannah; Mrs. Maud McLure, of Louisville, Ky.; Mrs. W. J. Neel, of Cartersville; Rev. F. Campbell, of Gainesville; Dr. C. L. McGinty, of Mercer university and Miss Maud Fowler of Atlanta.

The assembly will last eight days, closing August 7. During the week there will be addresses and conferences every morning and evening with the afternoons devoted to recreation. Blue Ridge is in the heart of the highest hills in Georgia and affords a delightful spot for a summer outing.

The reports from Blue Ridge indicate that a number of people have already arrived and it is expected that by Saturday afternoon the little mountain city will be filled with Georgia Baptists. The Louisville and Nashville railway announces extra coaches to carry for the increased traffic from Atlanta to Blue Ridge.

Arkwright Explains Letter on Opening P-a-y-e Front Doors

Stating that front entrances of places-at-all cars will not be kept open generally, but only on special occasions and under certain conditions, Mr. Arkwright, president of the Georgia Railway and Power company, has written the Constitution in explanation of the recent correspondence between himself and Chairman Murphy Candler of the railroad commission, on this subject.

Mr. Arkwright inclosed a letter he had written to Mr. Candler, in which he said:

"The suggestion of Mr. Shackelford, with reference to letting passengers through the front platform of pay-as-you-enter cars at times when the back platform is congested with negroes, is, we think, a good one."

Some years ago we did promulgate just such a rule as Mr. Shackelford suggests, and the rule is still in effect as a rule. However, during the last year or so this rule has fallen into more or less disuse. Upon receipt of your letter we have after investigation, republished the rule and directed that the rule be followed. The superintendent of transportation is giving special attention to it and will see that this rule is followed."

PLANS ARE ANNOUNCED FOR BIG CEREMONIAL

The Royal Proclamation announcing the "On to Chattanooga Ceremonial" to be staged by Kluba Temple No. 123, Dramatic Order Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, on the floor of the Forsyth building, has been issued.

The ceremonial starts at 8 o'clock and all Tyros must report by 6:30. This is the last ceremonial before the meeting of the Imperial Palace at Chattanooga next month, when it is predicted that the admission fee will be raised to $10.

Any member will be admitted upon presentation of a 1921 paid-up card, and all Tyros must wear their fezzes.

Everything is in readiness for the big show, as the master of ceremonies of Torture and the Royal Beast is in proper shape for his arduous duties.

Doctor Richard M. Eubanks, Royalty, has instructed the Secretary to have at least three hundred extra chairs in the hall to take care of the record breaking crowd. A large number of applications have already been filed with Secretary R. L. Owens.

BUILDING PERMITS REACH $1,764,417

With three more days to go Atlanta building values for July have boomed to $1,764,417.

Home building continued to stay in the spotlight, permits having been granted for the erection of 113 residences, which is a slight decrease from May and June, each with a record of 146.

Since January 1, as shown by records in the office of City Building Inspector C. J. Bowen, construction has been started on 729 new residences, which number the building inspector predicts will grow to more than 1,200 by the end of the year. Permits were granted for two apartments during July.

The largest single permit for the month, and one of the largest of the year, was for $985,000, the estimated cost of the new addition to the federal reserve bank on Marietta street. Work on the construction has already begun.

Permits for residences issued by months this year follow: January, 42; February, 58; March, 100; April, 118; May, 146; June, 146; July, 119.

DRY OFFICERS FAIL TO CONVINCE JURY

Moultrie, Ga., July 21.—(Special.) A jury in Colquitt superior court, summoned by testimony by County Policemen Stewart and Cobb that J. A. and L. T. May, well-known residents of the Berlin section, had violated the prohibition law, late Tuesday returned a verdict declaring the men not guilty of the charges against them.

The jury had been out on the case twenty-four hours. The charges against the Mays was one of about 60 liquor cases to be tried at this time of court, and in most cases in which the state will rely largely upon the testimony of the two dry officers.

GENERAL ELLIOT HOYLE DIES IN WASHINGTON

Was One of First Georgians to Enter West Point After Civil War.

A telegram received in Atlanta yesterday by Mrs. James Morrow announced the death of her brother, Brigadier General Eli D. Hoyle, of the United States army, at Washington.

General Hoyle was 69 years of age and had been in bad health for the past three years. Since his retirement from the army his home had been in Washington city, and much of the past two years he had been spent by him under treatment at the Walter Reed United States hospital there.

General Hoyle graduated from West Point with the class of '78; he and his brother, the late George S. Hoyle, who graduated from West Point two years previous, being the first two Georgia boys to go through the West Point Military academy after the civil war.

They received their appointments while living at Canton, Ga., where their father, George S. Hoyle, was a prominent citizen.

Both of the Hoyle boys rendered distinguished service in the army. General Hoyle dying about ten years ago.

In addition to Mrs. Morrow, the only surviving sister, there are two brothers, Frank J. Hoyle, of New York, and William of Montgomery, Ala., for many years a prominent business man of Atlanta.

General Hoyle after retiring from the army four years ago was called back into active service at the outbreak of the world war, and placed in command of the most important of all American army departments—that of the east, with headquarters at Governor's Island, N. Y. He was in command there for the first two years of the war.

He leaves four daughters, all of whom married West Pointers, and one son, DeDane Hoyle, now military instructor at Harvard. Two of his daughters have been with their husbands, Colonel Higby and Colonel Herr, of the United States army, at Coblenz, Germany, during the war.

General Hoyle married Miss DeRue, daughter of General DeRue, of the United States army. She survives him.

Interment will be in Arlington cemetery, across the Potomac from Washington.

LOVE OF CHICKENS COSTS NEGRO LIFE EARLY WEDNESDAY

The body of the negro, killed early Wednesday morning by W. H. K. Southard, of 18 Virgil street, was identified Wednesday afternoon as that of John Harley, of 18 Fitzgerald street. The negro was shot and instantly killed while attempting to force his way into a chicken house in the rear of the Southard dwelling.

Southard told the police that he was awakened by the noise of the man's efforts to gain entrance to the house. Taking an army rifle with him he went to investigate, saw the shadow of the man and fired once. Southard was not arrested.

Two burglaries were reported to the police as having occurred some time Tuesday night.

The store of the Osburn-Abston company, automobile accessories, at 291 Peachtree street, was entered through a skylight, and a small amount of cash together with several motorometers and other accessories were stolen.

Burglars cut a way through the front window of North Avenue Pharmacy at 530 North Boulevard without disturbing a burglar alarm attached to the door lock and made away with a large quantity of cigarettes and candy and $25 in cash.

Thrills Promised For Speedway Fans On Next Saturday

A big-league automobile race meet, featuring a three-cornered contest by the most daring drivers in the south and introducing stunts that will supply new thrills for speedway fans, is promised for Saturday, August 6, at the Lakewood track under the auspices of the Atlanta Women's club.

To begin with, the Southeastern Fair association officials announced a varied series of contests ranging from ten miles downward. These affairs will bring out many of the fastest cars and best-known pilots in the south. Then there's a motorcycle race for motor-bike enthusiasts, following which will be several brand-new innovations in the racing game.

The red-letter attraction of the day will be the final clash between the three fortunate drivers who score the most points in the preceding events of the day.

HONORS PAID HEROES Simple Services Held Here at Terminal Station.

The flag-draped caskets of twenty-three American soldiers on their way back home from France were given the honors due a soldier as they passed through Atlanta yesterday. As the bodies were placed in the Terminal station waiting transportation to their final resting places, simple ceremonies were held to show that Atlanta appreciated the worth of the men and the value of the sacrifice they had made for their country.

The services were part of the plan of patriotic societies, including the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the War Mothers, the Ladies auxiliary of the legion and the Spanish-American War Veterans to see that Atlanta gave tokens of remembrance as the bodies passed through.

On each casket was placed a flowered card bearing the names of the organization and a prayer was read by Chaplain John A. Randolph, of Fort McPherson.

These are the names of the Georgians Atlanta honored Wednesday: Private Thomas J. Adams, Company C, 327th Infantry, Canton, Ga.; Bugler Jennings, B. Bowen, machine gun company, 7th Infantry, Columbus, Ga.; Private Henry A. O'Neal, 5th Infantry, Fort Campbell, Mo.; Private James T. Bales, Company E, 1st Infantry, Gainesville, Ga.; Private Samuel M. Smith, machine gun company, 60th Infantry, Gainesville, Ga.; Private Maudie A. Miller, Battery C, field artillery, 1st Division, Fort Elgin, Ga.; Corporal James P. Samples, Company D, 89th Infantry, Norcross, Ga.

DEFEAT IS FORECAST FOR SCHOOL BOARD BILL

Savannah, Ga., July 21.—(Special.) The defeat of the measure for making the school board in Chatham county elective is forecast in a statement by T. Mayhew Cunningham, president of the Chatham board of education, made upon his return from Atlanta, where he had gone with Carlton B. Gibson, superintendent of public schools in Chatham, to oppose in committee the bill introduced by Representative Valentino, making the board of education an elective body for the citizens. The bill was, however, favorably reported on by the house committee, of which Mr. Valentino is a member.

Druid Hills Club Defeats Brookhaven In Team Matches

Hikey, Rainwater and McMillan Star—First Rounds Complete at East Lake.

BY JOE HATCHER.

The Druid Hills golfers played hosts to the Capital City club teams for the second of the inter-club team matches played yesterday over the Druid Hills course, and incidentally repeated their vengeance upon their guests for the defeat handed them last week. Ideal weather conditions prevailed yesterday and some good golf was uncovered to win for the Druid Hills team, quite in contrast to the downpour of rain over the Brookhaven course last week that made the best of the competing teams impossible.

The Druid Hills team, composed of Richard Hikey, Tom Prescott, Veasey Rainwater, and Mike Jones, came through in grand style with good margins. Moore Knowles, Charles Sciple, Milt Dargan, Jr., and Vernon McMillan. The score for the day's play was 30 points won for the Druid Hills team, which by the scoring method gives a twelve point win as against the seven point victory registered by the Brookhaven outfit last week. Two teams each represent the two clubs, playing two foursomes and four twosomes for each team over the best ball for the first nine holes counts one point and the same for the second nine, using both individual and paired scores.

In number of points individually scored Richard Hikey won three from Charles Sciple, Veasey Rainwater, Milt Dargan, Jr., for three more for the first team Druid Hills. Vernon McMillan, downed Mike Jones for a two point margin in favor of Brookhaven. Among the second stringers, Roger Jones and Dana Belser each added three points for Druid Hills over C. V. Cornell and Charles Elyea respectively.

Both team and individual golf and the matches were really closer than the score may indicate. Most of the rounds were played before their completion and thus the absence of cards for the rounds breaking these scores.

The scores of the two club teams follow:

First Team Play: Tom Prescott and Richard Hikey won from Moore Knowles and Charles Sciple by two points. Milt Dargan and Vernon McMillan off-set this score of two points with a similar win over Veasey Rainwater and Mike Jones. Richard Hikey won from Charles Sciple, 3 points; Rainwater beat Dargan for three points; McMillan defeated Jones for two; and Prescott won from Knowles.

Second Team Play: Henry Todd and Roger Jones won from Milt Dargan and Vernon McMillan by two points from Brown and Cornell (Brookhaven). Charles Black, Jr. and Charles Elyea (Brookhaven) won a single point over Hinnman and Belser (Druid Hills). Jones took three counts from Cornell.

Todd took two others from Brown. Dr. Hinnman partly off-set these wins with three points lost to Charles Black; Dana Belser came back with three more off Elyea and the score stands—Druid Hills 20, Brookhaven 8.

First Rounds in Pres. Cup at East Lake.

Ideal weather and good golf has prevailed throughout the first rounds in the East Lake playing over the East Lake course for the President's trophy. Keith Conway and J. W. West started the most spectacular round of the week according to a competitive standpoint when they were forced to travel the twenty-seven hole route for Conway's win. Arch Martin, low medalist in the qualifying round, won his match by default from Charlie Sciple. Tess Bradshaw had a comparatively easy win over W. A. Logan with a 4-2 margin and E. D. Richardson took Coffe Maddox for a 2-1 margin.

Arch Martin beat C. M. Sciple by default; Keith Conway beat J. W. West, 2 up; 27 holes; Richardson won beat Coffe Maddox 3-1; C. H. Ridley beat R. B. Parrott 1 up; T. N. Bradshaw defeated W. A. Logan 4-2; Wimberly Peters won from P. G. Lombard 1 up; Victor Smith beat Sam Armistead, 1 up; and Richard Hikey defeated Frank Holland 1 up.

Second rounds will be played by Saturday night.

Shadydale Wins.

Machine, Ga., July 27.—Shadydale defeated Mansfield in a fast game of ball today 5 to 1, at Mansfield, Ga. The game was fast and exciting. The features of the game was the fielding of Rainey, Brown and W. Horn pitched all-right ball. Umpires, Smith and Sams.

GIANTS GAIN PIRATES ON PIRATES

Pittsburg, July 27.—New York made it two straight from Pittsburg by winning today's game 4 to 1. Neft was effective and held the home team safe, until the seventh inning when Whitted tripled to right and scored on Barnhart's single. Young's batting featured.

Triple Play Stops Phils.

St. Louis, July 27.—A triple play executed by the St. Louis infield stopped a Philadelphia rally in the fifth inning of today's game and the Cardinals won a 5 to 1 victory. With the bases full, Rapp lined to Horneby who tossed to Torporcer, doubling Peters and Torporcer's.

Dawson Wins.

Dawson, Ga., July 27.—Dawson defeated Cuthbert on a score of 10 to 4. The game was a tie up 1 to the seventh inning when Dawson pushed across five tallies. Cocke led the locals attack with two triples at opportune moments while Robert Pinkston also scored two tallies. Taylor was the best with the willow for the visitors. Cuthbert for Dawson stole home while Whipple was holding the ball. Harris pitched well for Dawson, yielding only five hits. Robert Pinkston made a sensational stop and throw on Taylor's hard hit ball. Cuthbert eighth while Cocke played a good game at first.

Batteries—Cuthbert, Whipple and Register; Dawson, Harris and Pinkston.

American League

Red Sox Trip Indians.

Boston, July 27.—Boston came from behind in the seventh inning today and defeated Cleveland 5 to 3. The Sox were 10 runs down in the sixth, but Smith's throw, which got away from O'Neill, providing the necessary run.

HERMAN RECEIVES $22,330 FOR FIGHT

New York, July 27.—Pete Herman, who is on the way to New Orleans to visit his family, is flanked by $22,330 as the result of his recent fight with Joe Lynch in which he recovered the bantamweight boxing title. Lynch received a fat guarantee of $11,660. Herman's share was 70 per cent of the receipts after federal and state taxes and Lynch's guarantee had been deducted. The gross receipts were $99,960.90, representing 16,899 paid admissions.

Sam Goldman, Herman's manager, said today he was anxious to arrange a match with Johnny Kilbane, of Cleveland, for the featherweight title.

While the visiting athletes are not accustomed to the hot weather prevailing throughout the east, it appears to have had the effect of improving their work in several cases, particularly that of M. C. Nokes, the Oxford hammer thrower, who has been doing better than 170 feet in recent trials.

One of the closest contests of the day is expected to be the 440 yards dash in which Rudy, of Oxford, and Stevenson, of Princeton, will meet.

Powdered shank hide has been found to be hard enough to cut diamonds.

PANAMA JOE IS DUE TODAY

Every fighter that is billed to appear on the big all-colored championship card to be staged at the Auditorium Tuesday night by Promoter Walk Miller, with the exception of the colored champion, Panama Joe Gans, who will arrive some time today, are on the ground working.

Battling Mims, the big husky lightweight of Milledgeville, arrived yesterday and will work out every evening at 7 o'clock with Tiger Flowers at the Business Men's club. Kid Brown, the husky heavyweight from Augusta, also put in his appearance, establishing his training quarters at the colored M. C. A. He will work there with Battling Moon, and Champion Gans every night, and these workouts of the colored fans that wish to see them. The workouts at both training quarters are free to the public, and Promoter Miller especially invites the public to pay a visit to the Business Men's club.

Flowers in Shape.

Flowers has been training for the coming match for more than six weeks, and is in fine condition. He is being put through a hard row with the big heavy sparring partner, Battling Moon, who has been trained for the purpose of putting his opponent in perfect condition. Billy Hooper, Battling Mims, Jack Denham and Harvey McCravy, Promoter Miller's last opponent, are already large stable of boxers, each go three hard rounds with Flowers every night, and these workouts are as good as seeing a real fight. None of the fighters pull their punches now, and sometimes the going is as good as a regular fight. Gans will work out at the Business Men's club on Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock for the benefit of the fans and a large number are expected to put in an appearance to watch the famous "Black Rocket" in eastern sport writers proclaim Gans the equal, if not the superior, of any boxer living. Gans has been training for more than both of Charleston, have seen Gans. They say that Flowers will not hit him one good punch in the fifteen rounds.

Tickets have been placed on sale.

Railway Stocks Register

Some Fractional Gains

BY R. L. BARNUM

New York July 27.—While the rails did not advance as much as many people expected on President Harding's message to congress asking for financial relief for the carriers, stocks did show fractional gains today, even while industrial were declining. Losses of from 1 to 5 points were reported for General Electric, Central Leather common and preferred, Sears-Roebuck, American International Corporation, Pressed Steel Car and United Drug.

The stock last named, which sold early this year at 106, has dropped 27 points within the last twenty-four hours. Today's dispatches from Boston announced that Louis K. Liggett, the head of United Drug, had been killed while industrial were declining. Losses of from 1 to 5 points were reported for General Electric, Central Leather common and preferred, Sears-Roebuck, American International Corporation, Pressed Steel Car and United Drug.

Call Money Down to Bottom.
Call money loaned today at 4 1/2 per cent, the lowest rate touched since November of 1919. The turn over of call money on the stock exchange floor today, that is through the stock exchange institution handling the call money business is between $10,000,000 and $15,000,000. Only a month ago it was up as high as $35,000,000. However, all of the money used by stock exchange firms is by no means borrowed on the stock exchange floor. The bulk of it is obtained directly from Wall street banks and trust companies. But even so, call money is a drug on the market.

There was a good market for bonds today, with the price trend upward. Interborough Rapid Transit notes, which recently sold at 75, 4 is natural money for 83. As for the bond market as a whole, it is natural money for 83. As for the bond market as a whole, it is natural money for 83.

Today's Iron Age states in its weekly editorial dealing with trade conditions that during the past few days prices have declined rapidly. It was stated that there was some encouragement in the large tonnage under inquiry.

New York Central has placed an order with four equipment manufacturers for a freight car in the market for repairs for 500 cars. Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh is figuring on repairs for 500 freight cars.

Wall Street Puzzled.

Wall street was busy today trying to figure out where the money is to come from which is to be loaned to the railroads. No one could be found who could answer the question. President Harding says that the government is not to be asked to take up and that because of the proposed railway financing there will be no increase in the government's carrying charges. Who is going to put up the money? The government owes the railroads $200,000,000 back rental and the railroads owe the government over $1,000,000,000 for funds advanced during federal control for improvements properly chargeable to capital account. But as the government already holds the promissory notes of the railroads for the funds thus advanced, these charges have already been capitalized. The net result is that $1,000,000,000 over is to be funded into ten-year notes does not change the situation.

New York, July 27.—The action of the cotton market today indicated that the liquidation of the time being, at least, was pretty well over. Notwithstanding continued favorable weather reports from the belt and a bearish weekly weather and crop report from the government, the market was supported by the close developed positive strength with final prices five to six points higher and four to five points under the top for the day.

The market opened steady and 1 to 4 points higher on trade buying and local covering but soon came up to a decline which was carried over to 11.30 and December to 12.30, or five to ten points above the previous close. At this time sentiment was influenced by the report of a Texas house which had a cotton yield of 66.3 against 67.8 last month, thus indicating less than the average deterioration for the period and by the reports in a local trade paper showing favorable crop progress in Mississippi, Alabama and Louisiana with an improvement in condition in two of these states.

There were also a number of unfavorable trade advices from Manchester and reports of an increasing movement of the new crop in south Texas, all of which affected sentiment to some extent but failed to bring out further liquidation or to promote any aggressive bear pressure. Thus when spot hours were developed, the market liberalized and the close of the day was 24 to 27 points from lowest of the day and forcing in a good many local short accounts from the government, which had been put out earlier on the favorable weather news. No tenders on August contracts were reported. No offerings from the south continued on a moderate scale but were well absorbed by the trade buying which developed and early pressure from Liverpool and New Orleans was similarly taken care of.

New York, July 27.—Cotton, spot quiet; middling 12.10.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON HAS STEADY TONE
New Orleans, July 27.—A steady tone prevailed in the cotton market today with prices showing fractional gains nearly the whole session through. The tone on the close was very steady with prices 1 to 16 points higher than the final of yesterday. The market was supported by the close developed positive strength with final prices five to six points higher and four to five points under the top for the day.
